Functional What?

Across

2. Functional Neurological Disorder

4. Something that helps when demands are too high

5. A repeated movement or sound that is hard to hold back.

9. An unpleasant body sensation that some people with FND experience

11. How your nervous system is working with motor and sensory information

12. What keeps you upright, even when gravity has other plans

14. They carry messages between the brain and the rest of the body

21. When a person can't move a part of the body

22. A rhythmic shaking movement

23. Something your nervous system normally does without your thinking about it

24. Being awake and alert to yourself and your situation

26. A leg may do this instead of lifting normally while walking

28. What your nervous system helps your body do

29. A sudden brief movement that happens without reason

Down

1. Modern term for psychogenic non-epileptic seizures (PNES)

3. From the mind or Emotions

6. Another everyday word for where your attention is directed

7. Wrinkly, busy and running the show.

8. Where most FND symptoms are seen or felt

10. Connected to your senses (sight, hearing, smell, taste, and touch)

11. Symptoms are real and are not _____.

13. Upper body part that can be affected by weakness

15. When a part of the face sags or hangs lower

16. Medical word for the way a person walks

17. What your brain is focusing on right now

18. Common risk factor for increased symptoms

19. Muscles pulling the body into a twisted or fixed position

20. Messages travelling through the nervous system

25. Improvement in symptoms, function, or quality of life

27. FND symptoms