Distraction, External Focus, and Context

Across

1. Information about how an activity went

5. Store
your books here.

8. Ffocus
directed toward a movement's destination.

10. Using a helpful strategy outside the setting where it was learned

12. Extend an arm toward an object

14. Toward a chosen target

15. A person
whose preferences and responses may differ from others

17. Can provide movement timing

19. Qualified professional who can help choose suitable rehabilitation tasks

20. This matters alongside task completion

Down

2. Doing
two things at once

3. Task,
surroundings and available help around an activity

4. Put an object where it belongs

6. Physical item whose shape and weight affect how it is handled

7. Move
items around to make a task easier

9. Force that makes lifting different from sliding on a table

11. Description of what someone noticed

13. Firmly in the hand.

16. Focus
directed toward the body's own movements

18. How heavy an object is