FND Education · Module 6 Review

Across

2. This matters alongside task completion

5. Something that helps someone remember what comes next

6. Move
from one surface to another, such as bed to chair

8. Task,
surroundings and available help around an activity

9. Reduce unnecessary steps

13. Using a helpful strategy outside the setting where it was learned

15. A hint of where to return to a paused task

17. Move
items around to make a task easier

19. Choose one item from several possibilities

20. Notice a sound with your ears

22. Ffocus
directed toward a movement's destination.

23. Smooth,
connected performance of a familiar action

Down

1. Put the most important demand first

3. Qualified professional who can help choose suitable rehabilitation tasks

4. Pay attention to what another person is saying

7. Toward your own thoughts or body sensations

10. Type of memory that supports learned skills such as typing

11. Enter words using a keyboard

12. Description of what someone noticed

13. Demands
pulling for a person's attention

14. Make meaning from written words

16. Can provide movement timing

18. Bring a fact or instruction back to mind

21. Store
your books here.