FND Education · Module 7 Review

Across

2. The direction of your attention.

4. Your
body's request for a drink.

7. The
sense that recognises odours.

8. To adjust when new information arrives.

10. The time where earlier experiences belong.

15. The
day, month and year of an event.

16. The body part that contains most smell receptors.

19. Steps
chosen before beginning a task.

20. A difference between a prediction and incoming information.

21. Something bright that may draw your attention.

23. The
sense that detects light and shapes.

25. To bring a memory back to mind.

26. How easily a person can get from place to place.

27. To take steps from place to place on foot.

Down

1. To move attention from one thing to another.

3. To cease an activity when safety requires it.

5. To make sense of what you notice.

6. Memory
for facts, words and their meanings.

9. The
brain's forecast of what might happen next.

11. Protection
from avoidable harm.

12. An
emotion linked to perceived danger.

13. To respond to an unexpected event.

14. Sound that insists on joining every conversation.

17. Pressure
from demands that keep piling up.

18. What you're working toward, one step at a time.

20. Something
treated as more important than other demands.

22. The
sense that detects sounds.

24. What
you feel from something very warm.